Climate Action Planning Series 2020-2021

OCTOBER 20, 2020 - Local Governance - Setting the Stage 6:00pm - 7:30pm

Join us in learning more about Cumberland County's commitment to climate change mitigation and the importance of local government in addressing climate change. Discover the climate action planning programs available in Pennsylvania - such as the Local Climate Action Program through the PA Dept. of Environmental Protection. Speakers: Heidi Kunka of PA Department of Environmental Protection, John Dernbach of Widener University Law School, Cumberland County Commissioner Jean Foschi. To include moderated question and answer time. Event lead: Cumberland County Planning Department.

DECEMBER 8, 2020 - Municipal Rules - Where Real Action Happens 7:00pm - 8:30pm

How does local climate action planning happen? The Borough of Carlisle will be used as an example of how local governments and citizens can initiate climate action planning. To include group discussion after presentations. Speakers: to be determined. Event lead: Carlisle Borough.

FEBRUARY 2, 2021 - Schools - Where Ideas Take Root 7:00pm - 8:30pm
Climate Change prevention and mitigation practices already being implemented at Shippensburg University and Dickinson College will be used to understand how other schools and academic institutions can undertake similar initiatives. Speakers: to be determined. Event leads: Dickinson College and Shippensburg University.
