Cumberland County Planning Commission Seeks New Members to Fill Vacancies

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Planning Commission is looking to fill two vacancies on the commission for 2021. Residents interested in serving must be Cumberland County residents, submit a resume, application and be available to serve full four year terms beginning January 2021, and attend meetings at 7:30 a.m. on the third Thursday of each month.

A subcommittee of the Commission will review applications, conduct interviews, and recommend a slate of potential members to the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners, who make final appointment decisions. Experience in planning is helpful but not required. Appointments are made with respect to the applicants' interest in serving, background diversity and geography of residence.

Application materials are due to the Cumberland County Planning Commission office by Friday, Nov 6, at 4:30 p.m. For membership applications and additional information please visit www.ccpa.net/planning. For hardcopy materials or information regarding the appointment process call 717.240.5362.

The Cumberland County Planning Commission helps build strong urban, suburban, and rural communities by promoting responsible economic development, providing transportation choices, encouraging housing diversity, and conserving natural and historic resources.
