Farmers Market Vouchers Now Available for Cumberland County Seniors

Carlisle, PA – Farmers Market Nutrition Vouchers are now available for eligible Cumberland County Seniors, 60 years or older who fill out an application available through Cumberland County Aging and Community Services.

“Vouchers are available for our seniors but there is a limited supply,” said Annie Huff, Director of Aging. “The nutrition vouchers can be used at any participating farmers market or stand to purchase fruits and vegetables grown in Pennsylvania.”

To be eligible, recipients must have turned 60 years of age or older by Dec. 31, 2022 and have an annual income less than $25,142 for a one person household and $33,874 for a two person household.

The $24 nutrition vouchers can be used from June 1 through Nov. 30. For an application, contact Cumberland County Aging and Community Services at 717.240.6110, or get one online at www.ccpa.net/250/Meals-Food-Nutrition. Applications for this once-a-year program need to be submitted by Sept. 15, 2022.
