Volunteer Board Member Needed for Susquehanna Regional Transportation Authority

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Commissioners, in partnership with the Cumberland Area Economic Development Committee (CAEDC) are looking to fill a volunteer position on the Susquehanna Regional Transportation Authority Board (SRTA). The board is looking for a strong candidate who can serve on the volunteer board that provides fixed route transit in Cumberland, Dauphin, York, and Adams Counties.

The board is comprised of voting members with representatives from Adams, York Cumberland, Dauphin, and Harrisburg City, with a non-voting ex officio member from Franklin County. The board meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 10:00 in locations throughout the fixed route service area. The meetings are held in person with a virtual option.

This appointment is for the remaining portion of a 3-year term, expiring in 2024. If the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners chooses to reappoint this position, the new appointment would be a 5-year term.

Qualifications:

- Cumberland County resident (taxpayer or business owner).
- Demonstrated interest in the health and wellbeing of the county.
- Interest in public transit and transportation needs.
- Critical thinker, with the ability to interpret financial and performance data.
- Awareness of the service providers and/or customers who use the system.
- Knowledge of social economic, land use transportation and demographic characteristics of the county and service area.
- Understanding of state, national, and internal influences that impact transportation services.

Cumberland County residents who are interested in serving on the board must send a letter of intent and resume to Kirk Stoner, Cumberland County Director of Planning at kstoner@ccpa.net or, for more information call 717.240.5381. Deadline to apply is Friday, June 17, 2022, at 4:30 p.m.
