Stonewall Bridge in Southampton Township Opens to Traffic

Carlisle, PA – Stonewall Bridge in Southampton Township, Cumberland County is now open to traffic. The bridge, originally built in 1925, crosses Middle Spring Creek and carries more than 760 vehicles per day. Construction on the 38 ft one-lane concrete t-bridge began in March 2022 and was replaced with a two-lane concrete bridge.

This bridge is part of a three-bridge bundle that the county is preparing for replacement including, Roush Bridge which carries Dickinson School Road over the Yellow Breeches in Dickinson Township, and Burgner Bridge that carries Burgner Road over the Conodoguinet Creek in Lower Frankford Township.

The construction cost for Stonewall is $693,935, with a total for all three bridges at $2.7 million. Construction on all three bridges began in the spring of 2021.
