Text Survey Regarding Upcoming Election, Not From Cumberland County Government

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Board of Commissioners wants to alert residents that the county is not sending out surveys via texts asking questions regarding the upcoming election in November.

To date, residents have received texts from an unknown source, with the headline, “Cumberland County is making big decisions. Want to give thoughts in a 3 min survey?” and “Cumberland County is facing tough choices. Care to give thoughts in a short survey?” There is a link to SurveyMonkey included in both texts.

The texts and survey have not been created or sent by Cumberland County government.
