County Seeks Resident Involvement for Endowment Program Exploratory Committee

Carlisle, PA – Cumberland County is looking for residents interested in serving on a volunteer committee to explore the creation of an endowment fund from a portion of the remaining nursing home proceeds.

The county is looking for community-minded residents who are interested in serving on a committee to research where funding could best serve residents in need throughout the county. In addition, the committee will meet with residents at public meetings with the intent to garner additional ideas, needs and general feedback.

“This exploratory committee will research the needs of the community in coordination with the county’s Human Services Policy Steering Committee to develop recommendations for the endowment to present to the Board of Commissioners,” said Stacy M. Snyder, Cumberland County Chief Operating Officer, and Chief Clerk.

To apply for a position on the volunteer committee, residents will need to fill out an application and detail interest in serving, related background and professional experience.

Residents can email, hand-deliver, or mail the application to Cumberland County Courthouse, Office of the Chief Clerk, Suite 200, Carlisle PA, 17013.

All applications are due by Monday, Dec. 12 at 4:30 p.m.
