Cumberland County 7th Annual Shop with the Sheriff Helps 11 Children and Families

During the Past Seven Years, Sheriff's Office Brightens Holidays for 100 Children

Carlisle PA – Cumberland County Sheriff Jody Smith and Deputy Sheriff's partnered with children for the 7th Annual "Shop with the Sheriff". After dinner at the Army Heritage Education Center, the children went to Target at Carlisle Crossings with the help of the deputies to shop for holiday gifts with a $200 Target gift card. The children chose something they needed, something they wanted and a gift for a friend.

"This is our way of giving back to the community we serve," said Jody Smith, Cumberland County Sheriff. "It's through the generous donations of our county employees and the community that help make the holidays a little happier for these children."

Since the event began, the Sheriff's Office has helped brighten the holidays for 100 children.

"I would also like to thank Deputies Katie Blankenstien, Chelsea Nelson, Erin Reddington, Alex Young and Corporal Gregory Ickler for their time in coordinating this event," added Smith.

Business and community sponsors of the event include: AHEC, Target, Chick-Fil-A, Pappa Johns, Saylor's Market, Classic Drycleaners and Cumberland County employees.
