Cumberland County Warrant Collections Unit Renamed Court Collections Unit

Same Services and location - 1 Courthouse Square, Third Floor, Room 308, Carlisle PA

Carlisle, PA – Cumberland County’s Warrant Collections Unit will now be known as the Court Collections Unit to better reflect services the office provides to serve the victims of crime and all residents in the county.

The Court Collections Unit enforces and maximizes the collections of court-ordered costs, fines, and restitution in an efficient and cost-effective manner.

“We wanted to let residents know that we changed the name of our office, so if they receive something from Court Collections Unit, they know it is a legitimate office of the county,” said Toye Smith, court program manager.

Residents can reach the Court Collections Unit at courtcollections@cumberlandcountypa.gov, by calling 717.240.7340 or visiting, Court Collections Unit, 1 Courthouse Square, 3rd Floor Room 308, Carlisle, PA 17013.

The Court Collections Unit assists clients who owe costs, fines, and restitution to Cumberland County by setting up a payment plan based on the client's ability to pay. The Court Collections Unit holds clients accountable and increases the amount of restorative justice experienced by victims of crime through effective collection of fines, costs, and restitution.
