Cumberland County's Conservation District Holds 45th Tree Seedling Sale

Orders Must Be Received at the Conservation District Office by Friday, March 24

Carlisle, PA – Forty-five years and more than 550,000 seedlings sold, mother nature is the big winner in the Cumberland County Conservation District's Annual Tree Seedling Sale. The conservation district is accepting orders until Friday, March 24, and will be available for pick-up on Thursday, April 20, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. and Friday, April 21, 8 a.m. – 12 p.m. at the Conservation District Building 310 Allen Road, Carlisle.

Tree seedlings available for 2023 include:

- American Redbud
- Colorado Blue Spruce
- Concolor Fir
- Red Spruce
- Scarlet Maple
- Swamp White Oak
- White Pine

The district is also offering three types of apple trees (Enterprise, Crimson Crisp & Initial), two pear trees (Harrow Sweet and Shenandoah) and cherry (Montmorency). Blueberry plants, a wildflower mix, tree shelters and wood stakes are also available for order.

Profits from the tree seedling sale helps offset costs associated with environmental education projects and natural resource-related programs in Cumberland County.

Contact the Conservation District for an order form, by phone 717.240.7812, email conservationdistrict@cumberlandcountypa.gov or download the order form on our website. Orders must be received at the Conservation District Office by Friday, March 24, 2023.
