County Commissioners Call for Resident to Fill Executive Committee Vacancy

Interested candidates for the Cumberland Area Economic Development Corporation should apply by Friday, April 14.

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Board of Commissioners is looking for residents who would be interested in serving on the Cumberland Area Economic Development Corporation (CAEDC) Executive Committee. The commissioners, as the corporate members of CAEDC, are looking for a community-minded candidate to fill the vacant position.

The Executive Committee includes the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer of the CAEDC Board of Directors, and an individual designated by the Board of Commissioners. The Executive Committee provides recommendations to the Board of Directors, evaluates day-to-day operations, employee relations, and implements recommendations from the CEO for day-to-day operations.

Criteria for consideration:

- Knowledge of nonprofit corporations, including governance and organizational development issues.
- Knowledge of economic development and entrepreneurship, workforce development, or tourism and marketing.

The candidate will serve until January 2024 and is subject to the appointment or re-appointment by the Cumberland County Commissioners. The executive meetings are held on the second Tuesday of every month from 8 - 9:15 a.m.

Interested residents should send a resume and letter of intent to the Cumberland County Chief Clerk, Stacy M. Snyder, by mail to Cumberland County Commissioners Office, One Courthouse Square, Suite 200, Carlisle PA, 17013, or email at commissioners@cumberlandcountypa.gov.

The Cumberland Area Economic Development Corporation (CAEDC) is an independent, county-chartered 501(c)3 non-profit corporation responsible for providing economic development and tourism promotion services to Cumberland Valley, which includes Cumberland County and the Southcentral Pennsylvania region. The corporation is led by an executive director who reports to a board of directors. Members of the board of directors are appointed by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners.
