Cumberland County Raises Awareness for Victim Rights at 22nd Annual Rally & Walk

Carlisle PA – The Cumberland County District Attorney’s Office tonight commemorated National Crime Victims’ Rights Week (April 24–29) with its 22nd Annual Victims’ Rights Rally and One Mile Walk. This year’s theme is Survivor Voices: Elevate, Engage, Effect Change to help crime survivors find their justice. The event raised awareness about crime victims’ rights and provides victims information about resources and services available to them.

Awards presented:

- Cumberland County Victim Advocacy Award: Officer Cody Vickroy, New Cumberland Borough Police Department.
- Volunteer Recognition, YWCA Carlisle & Cumberland County Award: Megan Fiorillo and Dave Sheranko.
- Volunteer Recognition, Domestic Violence Services of Cumberland and Perry Counties: Jan Ekerovich

Speakers included: Cumberland County District Attorney Seán M. McCormack, Commissioner Jean Foschi, Crime Victim Survivors Nina Correale.

The Cumberland County Victim Services Division of the District Attorney’s Office was established to assist victims and witnesses of crime during their involvement with the criminal justice system. The office strives to help victims recover from the physical, emotional, and financial impact of the crime. The goal of the office is to ensure that victims’ rights are met, and all concerns and needs are addressed. The rally began at the historic courthouse and concluded with a one mile walk around town.
