Cumberland County Nursing Home Proceeds/Needs Exploratory Committee Issue Survey for Resident Feedback

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Nursing Home Proceeds/Needs Exploratory Committee is calling on residents to respond to a survey, on how to allocate $7.4 million in remaining proceeds from the sale of Claremont Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Members were appointed in Dec. 2022, and then formed a committee in Jan. 2023. Charged with researching the needs of the county, the committee worked with the Cumberland County Human Services Policy Team Steering Committee to identify funding gaps.

After gathering input from a public forum, and survey, the exploratory committee will issue their recommendations to the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners regarding possible options for the use of the remaining proceeds from the sale of the nursing home.

Members of the committee include Lawrence Clark, Lu Conser, Barry Denk, Joseph Gottwald, Ruth Hower, Gene Koontz, Corby Myers, Randy Nolen, Rick Rovegno, and Jennifer Schwalm.

The survey is open until Friday, May 19, at 4:30 p.m. It takes about 5 minutes to complete and be accessed at www.surveymonkey.com/r/NursingHomeProceeds, or through the QR code.
