Cumberland County Begins Count of Mail-in and Absentee Ballots

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Bureau of Elections today at 7 a.m., began the count of mail-in and absentee ballots for the Municipal Primary. After being sworn in at 6:45 a.m., the county staffers began the pre-canvass process, which includes verifying and opening ballots, preparing ballots to be scanned, and scanning ballots.

Counting will continue throughout the day until all ballots are counted. More than 16,005 ballots were sent out to Cumberland County voters who requested to vote by mail-in or absentee. As of 7 a.m. today, 11,925 have been returned.

Residents have until 8 p.m. to return their voted mail-in or absentee ballots at the Bureau of Elections, 1601 Ritner Highway, Suite 201, Carlisle.

Unofficial results will be posted on the Bureau of Elections website after 8 p.m. as they become available.
