Cumberland County Welcomes 48 New Citizens from 23 Countries at Naturalization Ceremony

Carlisle, PA – Cumberland County today welcomed 48 new citizens during its annual Naturalization Ceremony. The new citizens, representing 23 countries, took their oath in the county’s Historic Courthouse and received certificates of naturalization from Cumberland County Prothonotary, Dale Sabadish.

“Welcome to our new Cumberland County Citizens!” said Dale Sabadish, Cumberland County Prothonotary. “We are proud of all these individuals who have devoted countless hours over many years to the citizenship process. Congratulations as you celebrate your first day as citizens of the United States of America.”

The ceremony included a representative from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, The Hon. Judge Kevin Hess and The Hon. Jessica Brewbaker who administered the oath.

For information on the naturalization process, contact the Prothonotary’s Office at 717.240.6195 or email prothonotary@cumberlandcountypa.gov.
