Cumberland County Begins Count of Mail-in and Absentee Ballots

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Bureau of Elections today at 7 a.m., began the count of mail-in and absentee ballots for the Municipal Election. After being sworn in, the county staffers began the pre-canvass process, which includes verifying and opening ballots, preparing ballots to be scanned, and scanning ballots.

Counting will continue throughout the day until all ballots are counted. There were 21,072 ballots sent out to Cumberland County voters who requested to vote by mail-in or absentee. As of 7 a.m. today, 16,916 were returned. However, residents have until 8 p.m. to return their voted mail-in or absentee ballots at the Bureau of Elections, 1601 Ritner Highway, Suite 201, Carlisle.

Unofficial results will be posted on the Bureau of Elections website after 8 p.m. as they become available.
