

Cumberland-Perry Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities

We help you put the pieces together

Cumberland-Perry

Cumberland/Perry Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities (IDD) provides a variety of services to residents with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Supports coordination is the supportive process through which each individual's needs are defined. Our supports coordinators identify available resources; make referrals on the individual's behalf; and coordinate services for the individual with providers and community programs.

★ Our mission is to empower, support, and enrich the lives of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.
