Cumberland County Inmate Apprehended in Mt. Holly Springs Borough

Carlisle, PA – William K. Rosner, a Cumberland County inmate who walked off during work release on Monday, August 19, was found after being identified by an off-duty Sheriff's Deputy in Mt. Holly Springs. He was then apprehended by the Mt. Holly Springs Police Department.

Rosner was transported back to the Cumberland County Prison by the Sheriff's Office at approximately 9 p.m. on Thursday, August 22. He was arraigned on escape charges with no bail, according to Cumberland County Deputy Warden, Mike Eickhoff.

The 46-year-old inmate was serving a six-month sentence for a domestic relations warrant.
