Cumberland County Libraries Closed Wed. Oct. 23 for Staff Training

Normal operating hours at all locations will resume on Thursday, Oct. 24.

Mechanicsburg, PA – All public libraries in Cumberland County will be closed on Wednesday, Oct. 23, for continuing education classes for library staff.

“The Cumberland County Library System strives to maintain a high level of service for our library users. Staff attend this annual training event so they can stay up to date on essential skills that affect the way we serve our communities,” said Executive Director Carolyn Blatchley. “Although our physical library buildings are closed, online services such as the library catalog, research databases, eBooks, and our automated telephone circulation system will continue to be available.”

Items will not be due on Oct. 23. Normal operating hours at all locations will resume on Thursday, Oct. 24. For those who do visit while libraries are closed, all locations have either outdoor return bins or depository slots to return items.

For a list of all library locations and hours, other closures, and information on using library services by phone or internet, visit www.cumberlandcountylibraries.org.

The Cumberland County Library System is a federated library system consisting of seven member libraries, one branch facility, an administrative headquarters, and a non-profit foundation. Member libraries include Amelia S. Givin Free Library in Mt. Holly Springs, Bosler Memorial Library in Carlisle, Coy Public Library of Shippensburg, East Pennsboro Branch Library in Enola, Fredricksen Library in Camp Hill, John Graham Library in Newville, New Cumberland Public Library, and Simpson Library in Mechanicsburg.
