Cumberland County Conservation District Offers Scholarship Opportunities

Students can apply now. The deadline to receive applications is Friday, Jan. 16, 2026, at 4 p.m.

Carlisle, PA – More than eight thousand dollars in scholarship funds are available for Cumberland County college students majoring in agriculture, environmental resource management, conservation/natural resources, forestry, or any related field.

For the past 25 years, the Cumberland County Conservation District has supported students through its Environmental College Scholarship Program. The top applicant will receive the Wilbur E. Wolf Jr. Scholarship of $2,000, and other selected applicants will receive $500.

Recipients must be current college students who graduated from a Cumberland County high school. They must meet the qualifications set forth by the Conservation District Board of Directors. Proceeds from the Conservation District's annual golf tournament and tree seedling sale are funding scholarships for the current school year.

Two ways to apply:

- Online at www.cumberlandcountypa.gov/cd
- Pick up an application at the Cumberland County Conservation District, 310 Allen Road, Suite 301, Carlisle, PA 17013.

For more information, email conservationdistrict@cumberlandcountypa.gov or call 717.240.7812.

Deadline for applications is Friday, Jan. 16, 2026, at 4 p.m.
